^CORE 100 requirement is waived by King's College if the Luzerne County Community College student brings in at least 12 credits with a Writing course (CORE 110).

*Accounting students may elect to take 18 credits per semester during their junior and senior years. Students pursuing these additional 3 credit hours per semester during the third and fourth years of study will have attained 135 credit hours of education; these additional credits are included in the students' regular tuition and can be taken without any overload fee. The number of credit hours required for graduation with a B.S.B.A and a major in Accounting is 125 credits (General Track).
